75 NUMBERS UP GAMES AND 500 WHOOPEE!

HATS ALSO TO BE WON!

This is it — the moment you've all been waiting for! We've reached the last part of our special four-week competition and now's the time to get those pens out, ready to send off your entries. You could win one of the two first prizes — £25 to spend on whatever takes your fancy. And that's not all, 'cos there are 75 fascinating "Numbers Up" games to be won, as well as 500 baseball hats with "Whoopee!" printed on them.

Here are the final three clues, making 12 answers in all with those we've given during the past three weeks. Here's how to make your bid for one of our wonderful awards.

Write each answer in the proper space — there's a reference letter for every clue — on your Bingo card, so that you finish up with numbers in all the spaces. Add your name, age and address, in block letters, then get a parent or guardian to sign that it is your own unaided work. Paste the completed coupon on to a postcard and send to: WHOOPEE BINGO COMPETITION, 136 LONG ACRE, LONDON, WC2E 9QP, to arrive not later than Thursday, 7th November, 1974.

All entries will be examined and the first prizes awarded to the two readers who have answered all or most of the clues correctly. Remaining prizes will be awarded for the next best entries. In the event of ties for any prizes, neatness according to age will be taken into consideration to determine the winners.

The competition is open to all readers under 17 years of age, in Great Britain, Northern Ireland and the Channel Isles, other than children of employees of IPC Magazines Ltd. and the printers of WHOOPEE!

The Editor's decision is final.

Dear Editor,

I have been interested in buses ever since I was young, and now my hobby is collecting bus numbers. I have 982 up to now, and I hope to reach 1000.
ANDREW MARSHALL, FISHCROSS.
1000 or bus-t eh? . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My sister bought the WHOOPEE! Holiday Special, and I have read it. I noticed it included four stories you don't put in WHOOPEE! weekly . . . Gook, Parker the Parky, Karate Kid, and Nipper. I especially liked Nipper because my nickname is Nip.
CAROLINE LONNEN, ISLEWORTH.
Right then, live up to your nickname and NIP off to the shop to order the 1975 WHOOPEE! Annual. You'll find all your new-found friends in it. Editor.

Dear Editor,

A reader asked for more girls stories, but I disagree. One Saturday I watched fifteen girls collect WHOOPEE! and ten boys buy the comic. So girls can't really mind reading boys' stories can they?
NEIL HEINMAN, WEST WICKHAM.
We hope our stories appeal to EVERYBODY . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I would like to tell you about my visit to a zoo. I decided to go for a camel ride, so I asked the keeper to hold my copy of WHOOPEE! for me. When I got back from the ride, I found the man laughing his head off at the comic. So I reckon I've found another fan for you.
CAROLE SPINDLEY, GAINSBOROUGH.
Guess he couldn't have been the head keeper, eh? . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I enjoy reading your comic every week, but why do you take features out to put new ones in? If I was the Editor, I would put new features in and NOT take any others out. Then there would be even more to read.
DAVID PHETHEAN, MANCHESTER.
Unfortunately, there are only a certain amount of pages available, David, so there has to be some swopping around . . . Editor.

OOOh, it's OSSIE

HIYA, girls and boys! Ossie here with news of the table football match I told you about last week. I played against Alan the artist, and oh boy, was I in form! I hit the post, won three corners, brought off a great save or two . . . and only lost the match by 15-0. Honestly, how LUCKY can he get?

Huh, who needs football when I've got your letters . . .

Dear Ossie,

I would like to tell you about my hobbies, which are swimming, knitting, sewing and reading. I am a great fan of WHOOPEE!, and here is a picture of me.

Jayne Diggle, Abbey Hey.

Very nice, too! Sorry I couldn't print your picture in colour to match your original snap . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

Do you keep a dog . . . because I do. I have an alsatian called Butch who is just like Scared-Stiff Sam. Once, when I took him for a walk he saw a cat, but instead of chasing it . . . he hid!
MAXINE HOMER, SALE MOOR.
I haven't got a dog, but I reckon old Thingy (The Editor) thinks I'm one. He HOUNDS me all day long, and never lets me PAWS for breath!
